Jesus did many miracles. Miracles were signs to show Jesus really is God's Son.

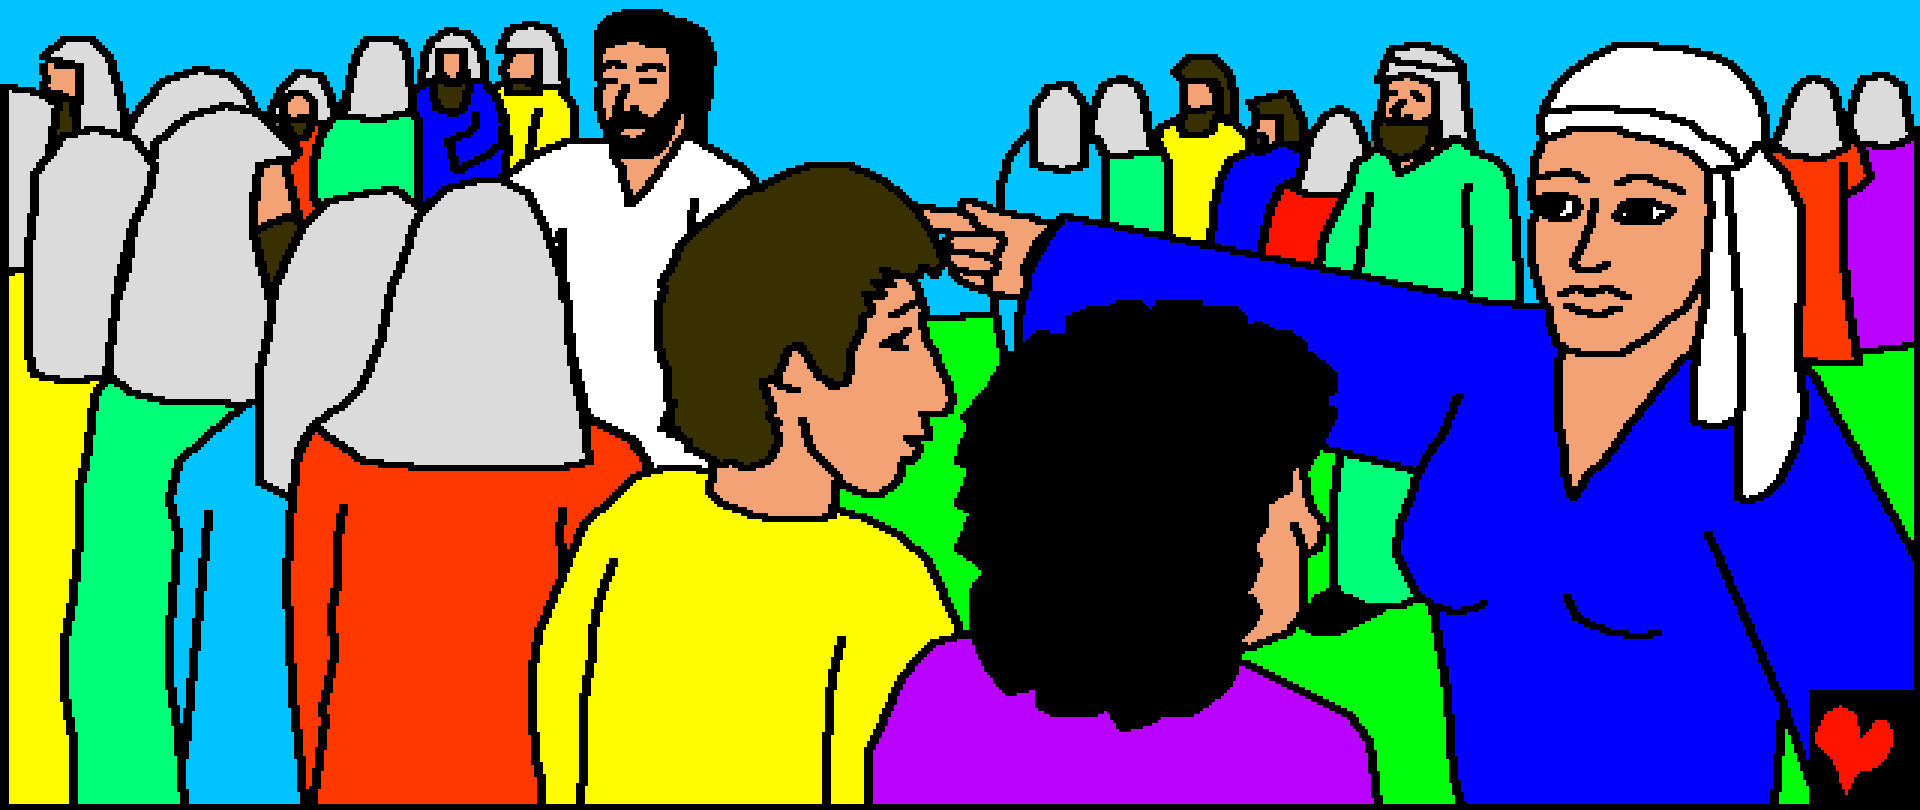

The first miracle happened at a wedding feast. A problem arose.

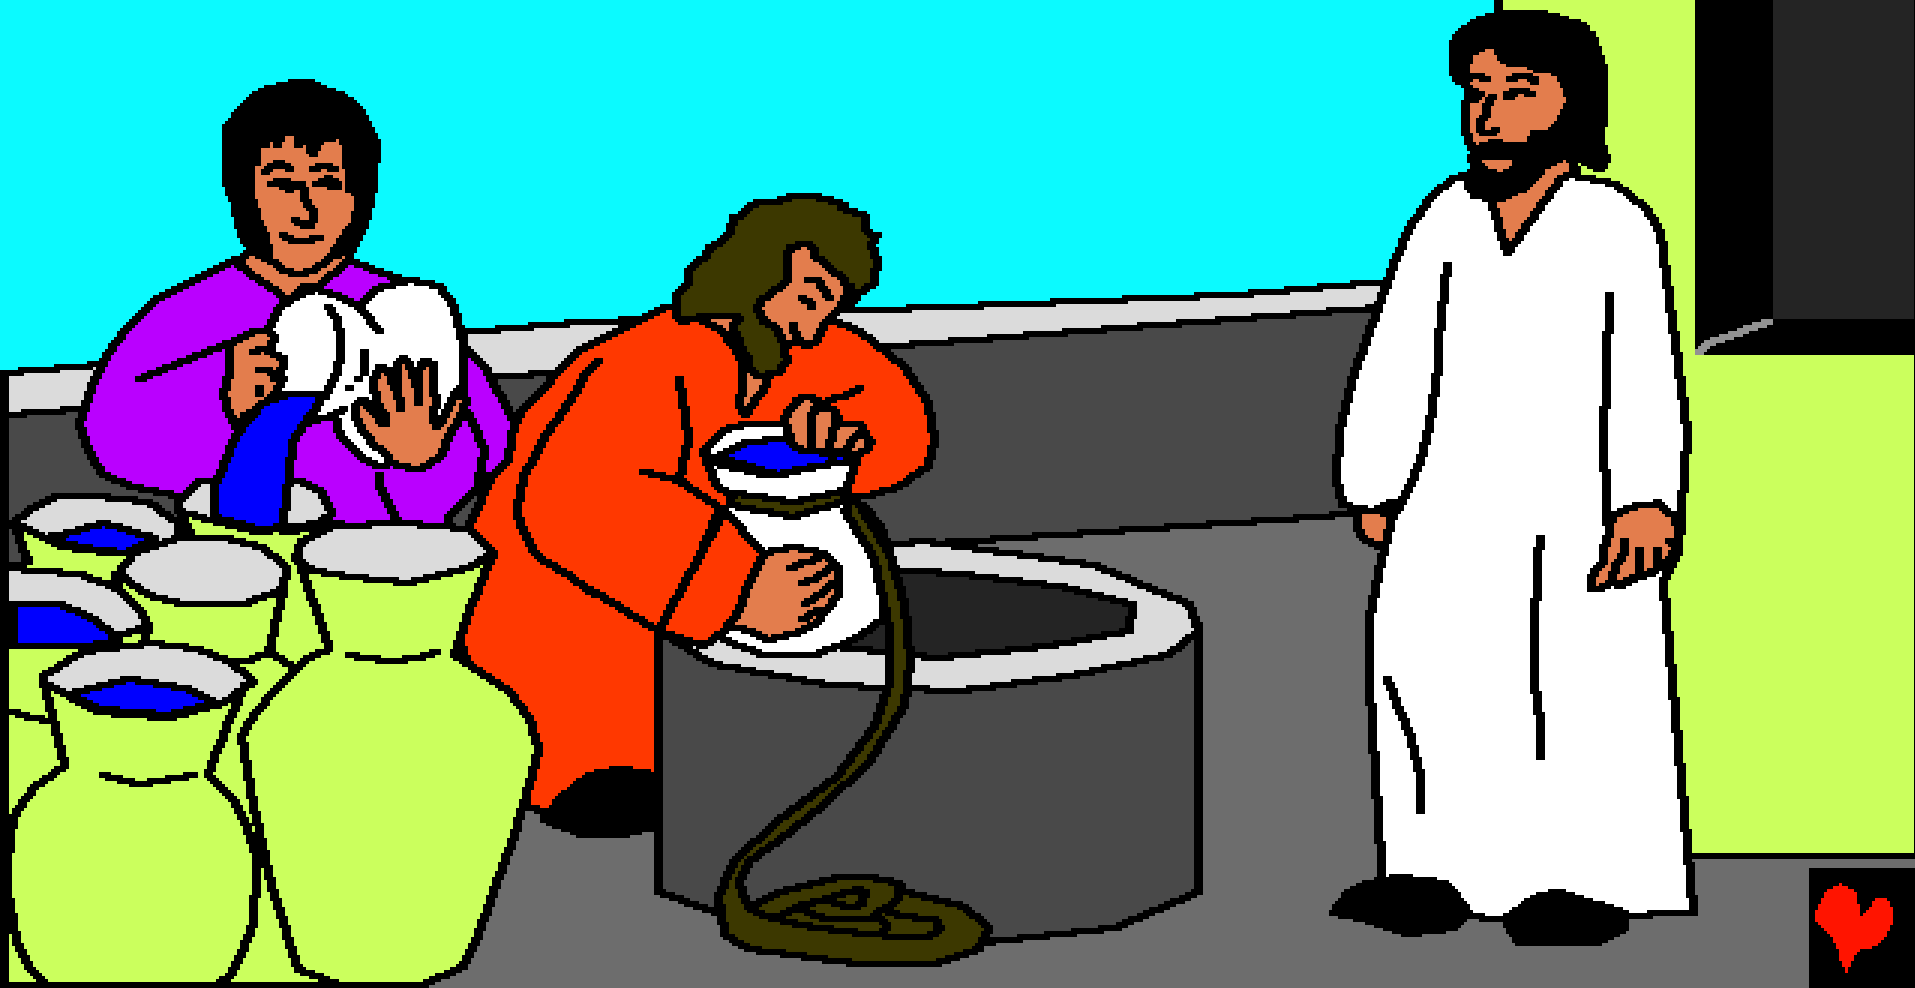

There wasn't enough wine
for everybody.

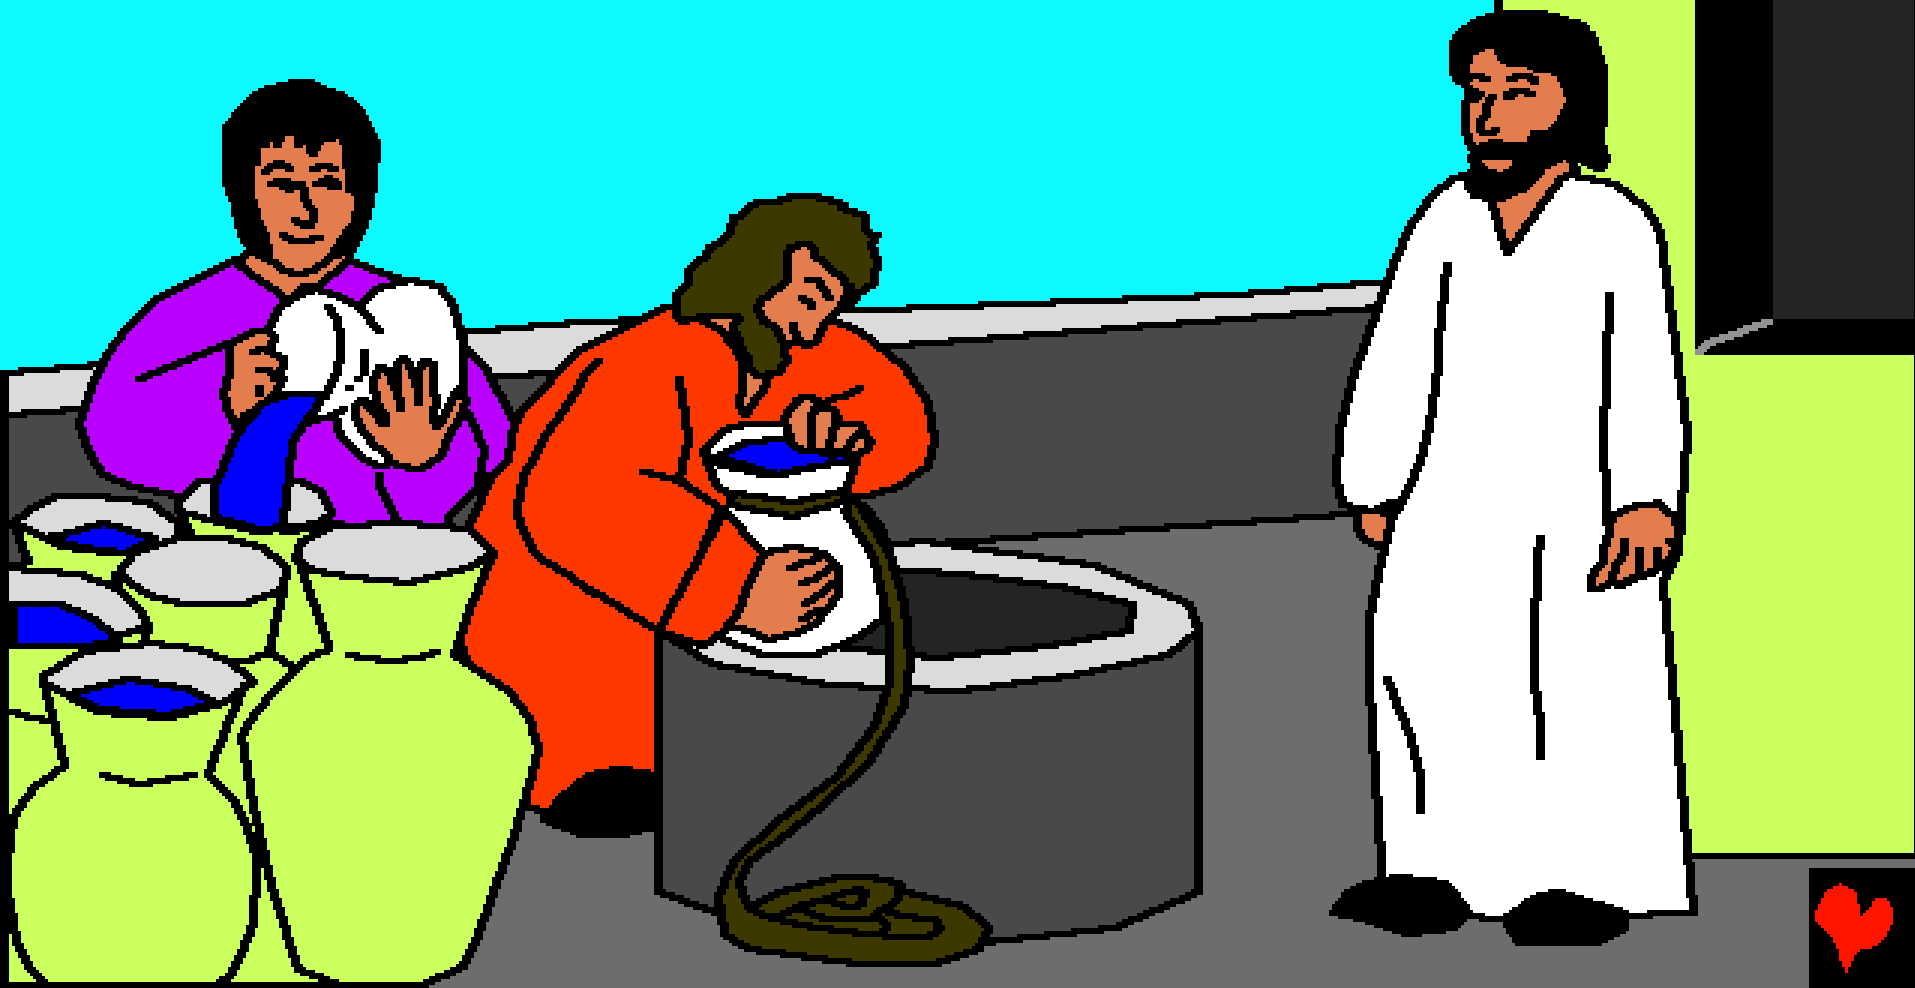

Mary, Jesus' mother, told Him about the problem, then told the servants to do whatever Jesus commanded.

"Fill these pots with water," Jesus said.

"Water?" they may have asked. Yes, water was what Jesus requested.

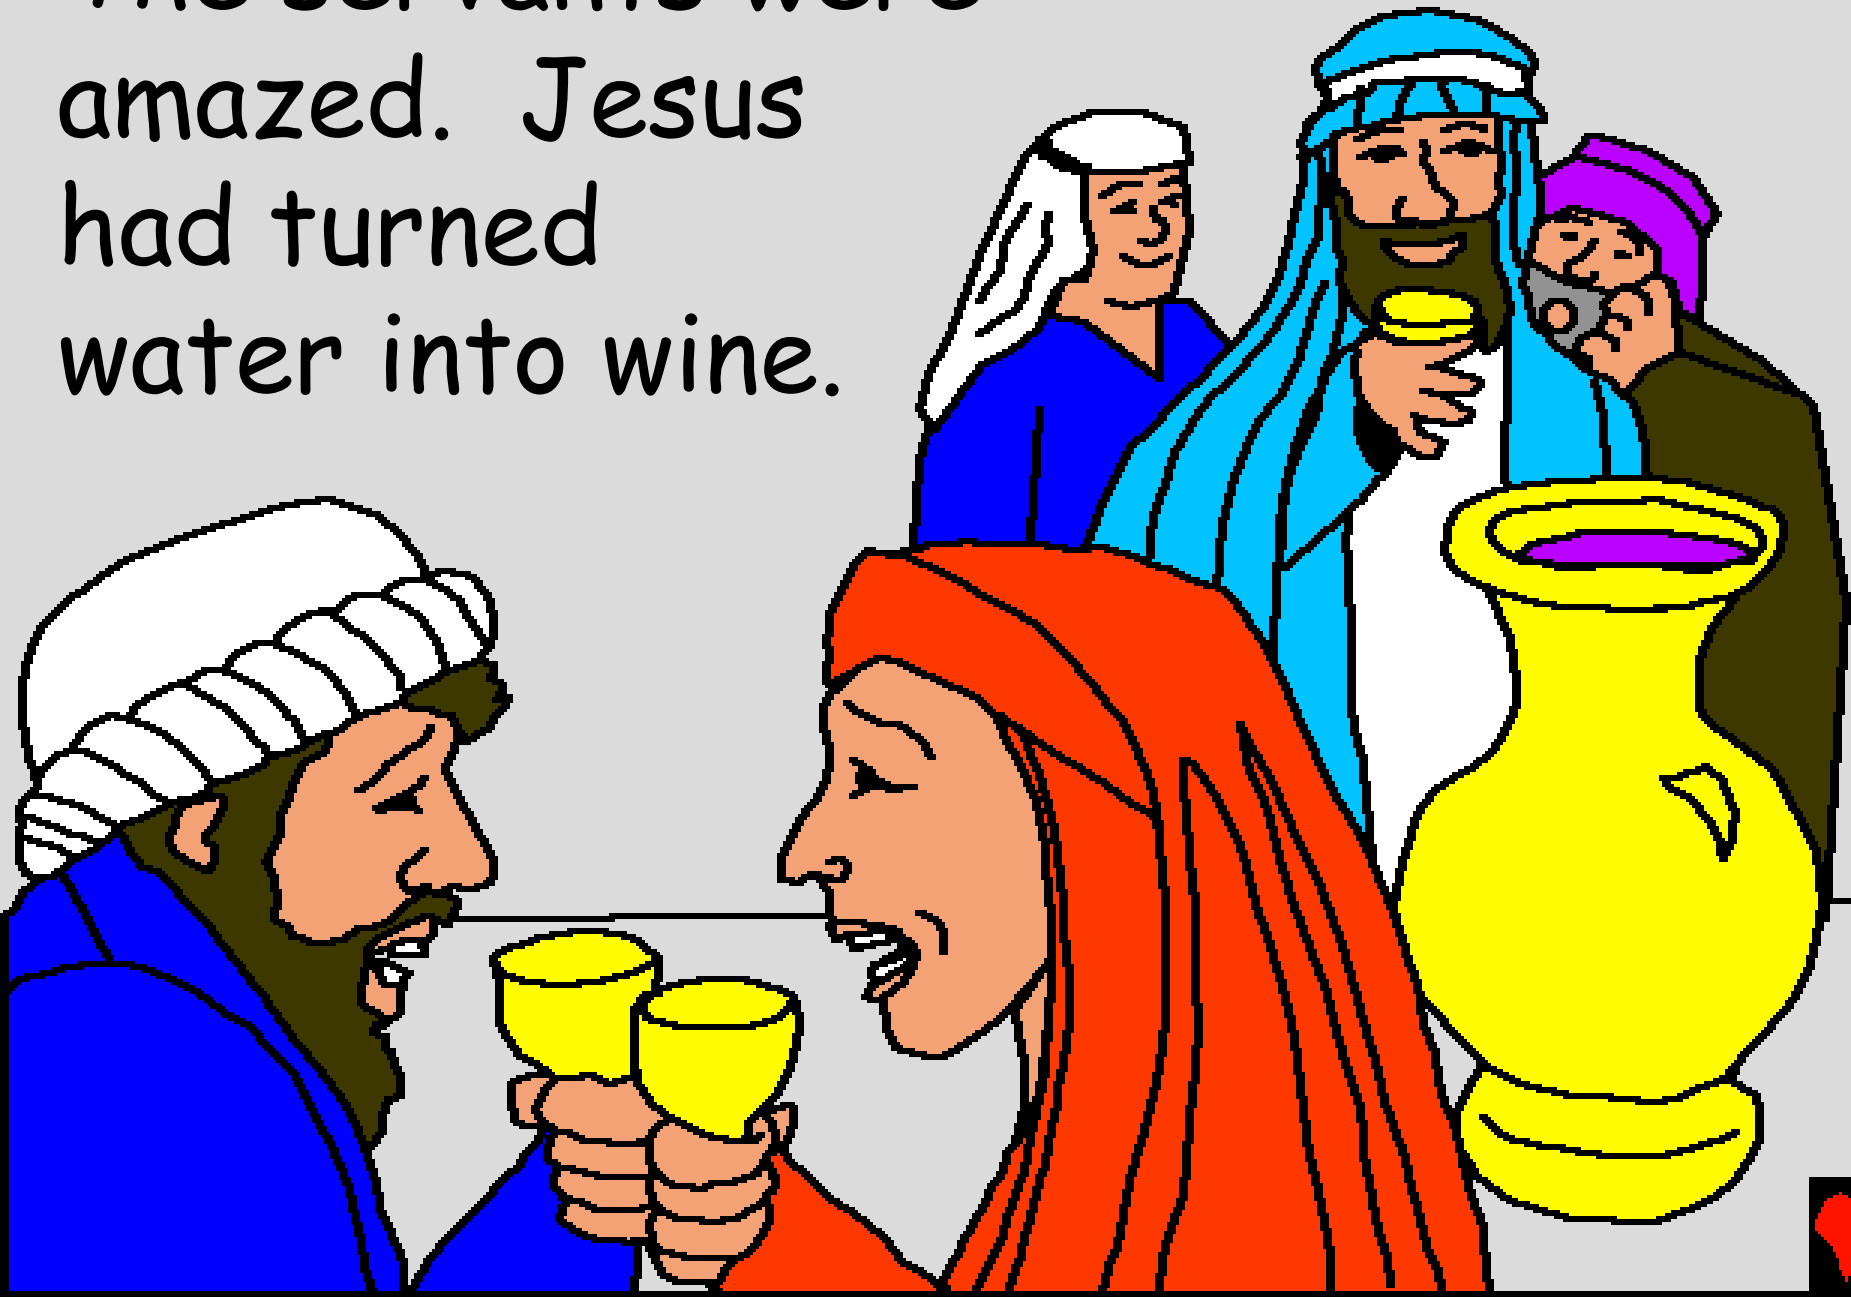

Jesus then told a servant
to take from
one large pot
and let the
man in charge
of the feast
taste
it.

The water was
now wine!
Good wine!
The best
wine!

The servants were amazed. Jesus had turned water into wine.

Only God could do such miracles.

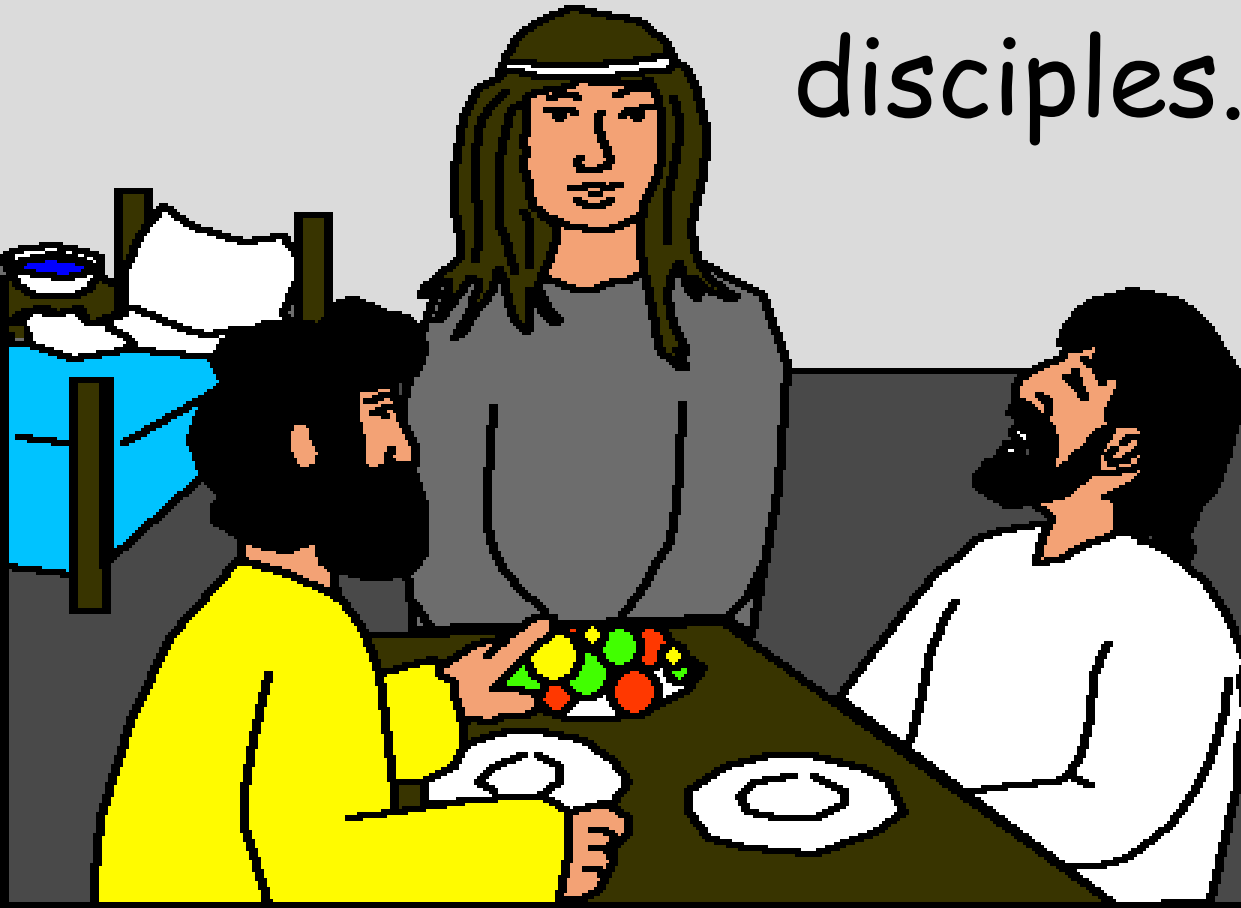

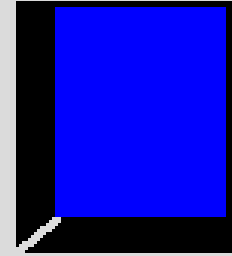

Jesus performed other miracles.

One evening, He and His disciples went to Peter's house. Peter's mother-in-law was very sick with a fever.

Jesus touched the sick woman's hand. In a moment she was well again. She got up to serve Jesus and the disciples.

It seemed the whole city gathered at the door
that evening.
Sick people
came - blind,
deaf, dumb,
crippled.

Even people with demons living in them crowded to Jesus. Could he help so many?

Jesus, God's Son, could help. Jesus did help. All who came to Him were healed.

People who dragged through life on crutches could now walk and run and leap.

Others
came, who
were made
ugly with
leprosy.

They became whole and
clean as Jesus
healed
them.

Men and women troubled with demons stood before Jesus.

He commanded
the
demons
to leave
them.

As the demons obeyed, fearful, unhappy people became calm and joyful.

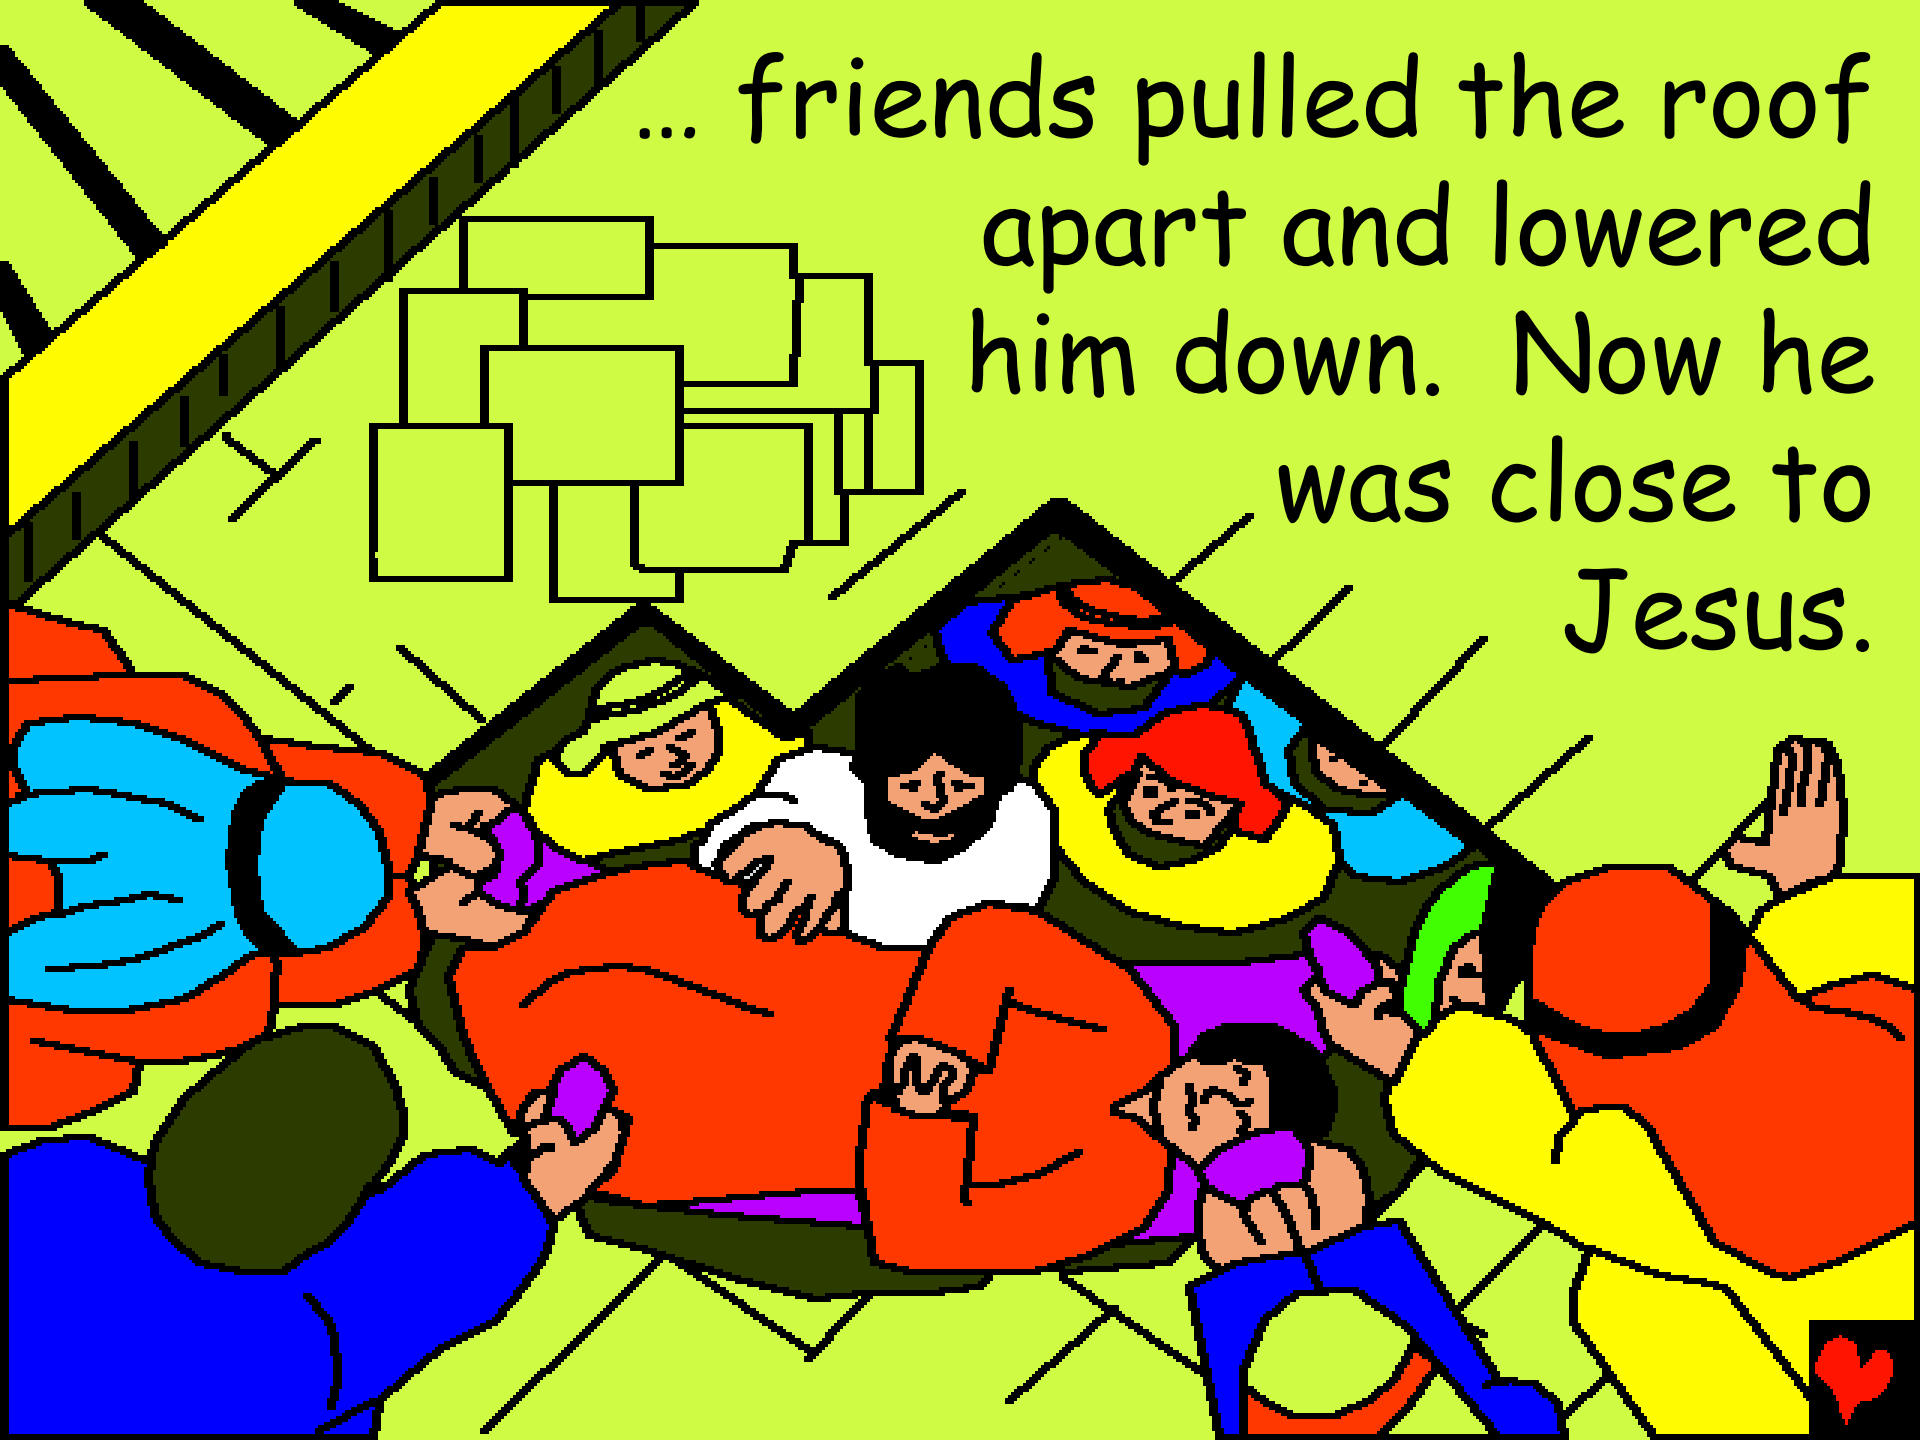

Behind the crowd, four men tried to help their friend to Jesus. But they could not get near. What could they do?

Carrying the sick man on to the roof of the house, the four
faithful ...

... friends pulled the roof
apart and lowered
him down. Now he was close to Jesus.

Jesus saw that
the four friends
had faith.
He said to
the sick
man, "Your sins are forgiven.

Take up your bed and walk." The man stood up, well and strong. Jesus had healed him.

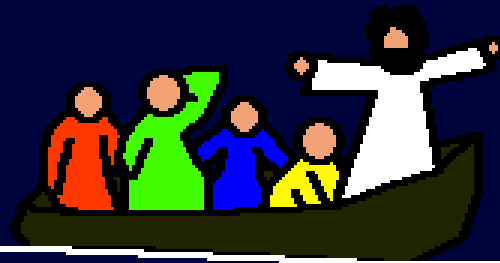

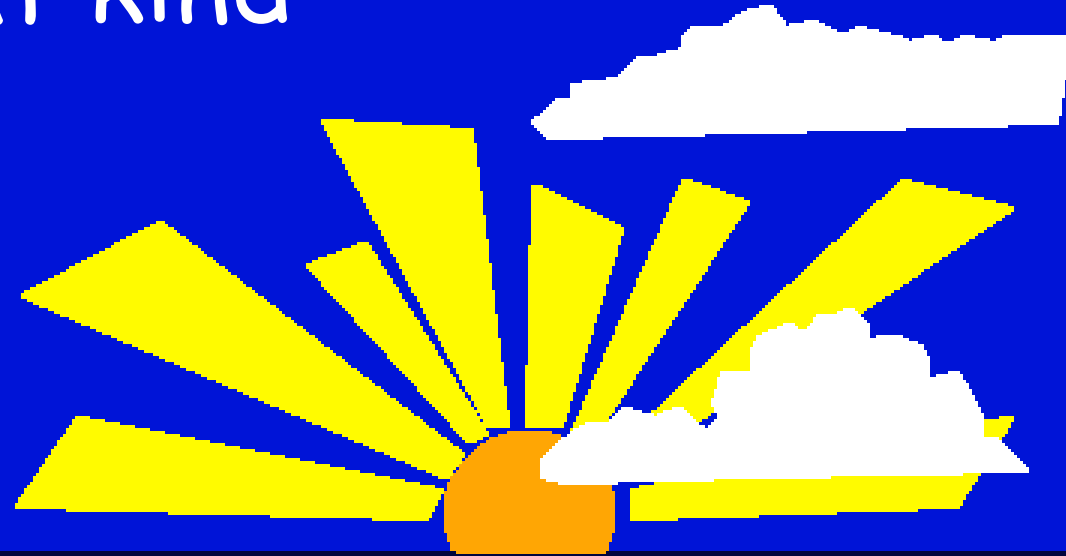

Soon after, Jesus was in a boat with the disciples. A frightful storm churned up the sea.

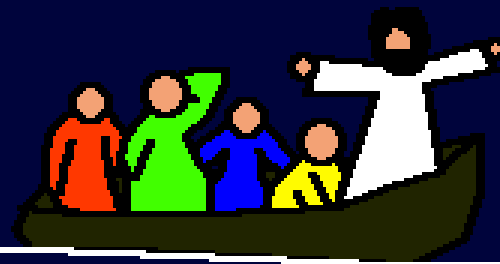

Jesus was asleep. The terrified disciples woke Him. "Lord, save us," they cried. "We perish!"

"Be still," Jesus commanded the waves. Immediately, the sea was calm. "What kind of man is this?" His disciples whispered. Even the wind and sea obey Him.

They believed Jesus was God's Son because His miracles showed His glory. The disciples did not know it, but they were going to see Jesus perform even greater miracles as He served God among men.

The End

This Bible story tells us about our wonderful God who made us and who wants us to know Him.

God knows we have done bad things, which He calls sin. The punishment for sin is death, but God loves us so much He sent His Son, Jesus, to die on a Cross and be punished for our sins. Then Jesus came back to life and went home to Heaven! If you believe in Jesus and ask Him to forgive your sins, He will do it! He will come and live in you now, and you will live with Him forever.

If you want to turn from your sins,
say this to God:

Dear God, I believe that Jesus died for me and now lives again. Please come into my life and forgive my sins, so that I can have new life now, and one day go to be with You forever. Help me to live for You as Your child. Amen.
